Mr. Mull,

It's pretty hard to write in a teacher's annual. But I just want to wish one of the greatest teachers ever the best in life there is to offer, cause I can say you're one teacher that deserves it.

May God continue to Bless you forever.

"Miss
HAIR-BRIGHT"

A sweet student (ha!)

Mr. Mull,

It has been a pleasure being in your Civics and Economics class. Lots of luck to a real good teacher.

It is our sincere wish that as you read the Belles Memoirs you will relive the events of this year. We hope that you will find warm happy memories of classmates, teachers, activities, and events that were a part of school life at Oak Hill High in 1963-64.

Class History

The long awaited time has finally arrived. Soon the class of 1964 will have ended their high school studies and will go out to seek whatever fortunes await them. But first let us go back to the year, 1959, when we, the present "dignified" seniors, made our debut as "green" freshmen. Soon our excitement had subsided and we began to get into the swing of high school life under the watchful eyes of Mrs. A. Moore, Mr. Charles Webb, and Mr. Gary Hammond. We were divided into three different homerooms. The class officers were as follows: Mrs. Moore's homeroom, Diane Patterson, President; Lelia Withrow, Vice-President; Roger Patton, Secretary; Gailord Banner, Treasurer; and Bruce Saulmon, Reporter. Mr. Hammond's, Sandra Loven, President; Wayne Buff, Vice-President; Carolyn St. John, Secretary; Donna Stephens, Treasurer; and Reid Withrow, Reporter. Mr. Charles Webb's, Joyce Annis, President; Rita Trent, Vice-President; Sandra Moore, Secretary; Mary Sue Royal, Treasurer; and Larry Taylor, Reporter.

Our freshman year we had two boys, Steve Carlisle and George Ollis out for football, and seven boys and girls for basketball. They were Roger Patton, Bruce Saulmon, Larry Taylor, Steve Carlisle, Jerry Beck, Bennette Allman, James Conley, Joyce Beck, Linda Warlick, Sandra Loven, Donna Stephens, Rita Trent, Lelia Withrow and Saundra Clark. We also had three boys out for track. They were Larry Taylor, Steve Carlisle, and James Conley.

Two boys of our freshman class won awards that year. Reid Withrow won an oratory award and Roger Patton won a health award.

Then after long hours of study and months of waiting we finally became sophomores. Our sophomore advisors were Mrs. A. Moore and Mr. Stephen Lowdermilk. The class officers were as follows: Mr. Lowdermilk's homeroom, Sandra Moore, President; Frances Puckett, Vice-President; Sandra Loven, Secretary; Randy Perry, Treasurer; and Roger Patton, Reporter. Mrs. Moore's homeroom, Betty Allman, President; Steve Carlisle, Vice-President; Reid Withrow, Secretary; Larry Taylor, Treasurer; and Gary Beck, Reporter.

This year we had two more boys, James Conley and Larry Taylor out for football. We also had two more girls, Esther Wiseman and Thelma Lequire out for basketball.

During this year four of our classmates were asked to join the Beta Club. They were Donna Stephens, Jerry Beck, Bruce Saulmon, and Gary Beck.

Also this year we formed the Student Council. Lelia Withrow and Betty Allman were chosen to represent our homeroom.

Then we were Juniors. Our advisors were Mr. Max Harris and Mr. Edward Barrier. Our class officers were as follows: Mr. Harris's homeroom: Gary Beck, President; Sandra Loven, Vice-President; Reid Withrow, Secretary; Pansy Wall, Treasurer; and Steve Carlisle, Reporter. Mr. Barrier's homeroom, Betty Allman, President; Larry Taylor, Vice-President; James Conley, Secretary; Rita Trent, Treasurer; and Frances Puckett, Reporter.

Our class kept adding to the football team for Roger Patton, Jerry Beck, and Reid Withrow went out for football.

This year we sold the World's Finest Chocolate and gave the Junior Play, Too Many Girls, with Steve Carlisle in the starring role. Both projects turned out as huge successes thanks to the supervision of Mr. Max Harris and Mr. Edward Barrier. These projects were to pay for the Junior-Senior Banquet which had the theme of Apple Blossom Time.

This same year some of our boys won awards in different fields. They were Bruce Saulmon, Social Studies; Gary Beck, Typing; Jerry Beck, Mathematics; and James Conley, Track.

A great number of the Juniors went to Washington, D. C. on the class trip. All that went had a grand time.

Five of our classmates were chosen as marshals for the twelfth grade graduation. They were Jerry Beck, Chief, Gary Beck, Betty Allman, Joyce Annis, and Donna Stephens.

I suppose the greatest thrill of all came when in the spring of 1963 we ordered our class rings. The idea of becoming a senior became more real.

We entered our senior year with Mrs. Genevieve Broome as our senior advisor. Our class officers were Sandra Loven, President; Gary Beck, Vice-President; Rita Trent, Secretary; Jerry Beck, Treasurer; and Reid Withrow, Reporter.

At our homecoming game Janet Kayga was crowned Queen and Rita Trent was chosen Maid of Honor.

Steve Carlisle made All-Conference in football.

Then came the Junior-Senior Banquet, the Senior Play, and the receiving of our class rings.

Graduation Day was upon us before we knew it. This was the day we had been waiting for or so we thought. But we discovered there were so many happy memories we were leaving behind that we hated to leave.

This ends our high school history, but each of us will write his own history in the deeds he does and the life he lives.

Class Prophecy

Today we are gathered on the lawn at the Oak Hill Recreation Center for our class reunion. Fifteen long and busy years have passed since we graduated in 1964 and it seems hard to believe we are all together again. Many changes have taken place in the lives of our classmates.

First we talked with one of our dear friends, BETTY ALLMAN, whom we learned is the secretary to the president of Waldensian Bakery, which is owned and operated by GEORGE OLLIS. Next we found that FRANCES PUCKETT was another "Bridget Bardot" playing opposite ELMER AVERY in the much talked about movie: "I Don't Wanna be Tied." Another friend of Frances and Betty's, DONNA STEPHENS has changed her name to Georgia East and is an airline stewardess on a Pan-American plane piloted by JOHNNY DOCKERY. JOYCE ANNIS is now the proud wife of Bob Winters, owner of the Winter's Ranch, formerly known as Gingercake Acres. LINDA LAMBERT has decided that being a housewife was not her only goal and is now teaching at Appalachian. We heard that PAT LINGAFELT is now secretary of the World's National Boy's Club operated by WAYNE BUFF. JAMES CONLEY is the star player for the Green Bay Packers. His best friend, STEVE CARLISLE is now the owner of Carlisle Construction Co., the largest in the South. GARY BECK is doing quite fine for himself as a professor at Duke University. JERRY BECK is one of the leading astronomers at Mt. Palomar in California. JEAN LOWDERMILK tells me that LOUISE LOWDERMILK and she are now the owners of the only night club in Burke County. TRUDY CLONTZ is now a housewife with a houseful of kids. SAUNDRA CLARK happens to be in Hawaii with Larry on their second honeymoon. EDD DAVIS is now a private detective for the big city of Morganton and is presently on the case of trailing PANSY WALL on behalf of her jealous husband. RANDY PERRY tells us that he is the owner of the Oak Hill Speedway. BRUCE SAULMON, now principal of the Oak Hill Consolidated School, has a very efficient secretary MISS NELL CLARK. JOYCE BECK and her husband are the proud owners of the only mansion in Burke County and does it have room for children! THELMA LEQUIRE tells us that she is the girls' basketball coach at Oak Hill with ESTHER WISEMAN as her assistant. When asking of the whereabouts of CAROLYN WILE and her husband, we were told that they were unable to attend because they have made their home in Alaska. ROGER PATTON is the football coach for the Appalachian Mountaineers. LARRY TAYLOR is a very fine history teacher at the Morganton Junior College. RITA TRENT was overheard saying that she and SANDRA LOVEN are enjoying their job as managers of the Women's Clothing Department at Lazarus. CAROLYN CRAWLEY seems to be enjoying her job as private secretary for one of Morganton's lawyers, Mr. Jim Fleming. CAROLYN HEAVENER is the dietician for the Oak Hill School cafeteria.

Class Prophecy (con't)

RUTH BRITTAIN is head seamstress at the Fashion Store. BARBARA BECK is said to be one of the greatest beauticians in New York City, working at the salon of the famed 'Mr. Kenneth!' BETTY PRITCHARD is a famed authoress, and at present is composing what appears to be a best seller, "Pritchard's New and Unabridged Slang Dictionary." THOMAS FOX told us that he is the owner of Fox Ford Sales in Morganton. BENNETTE ALLMAN is now the very famous star of the television doctor series, Gil Casey. MARGARET BUCCANAN is a part time model as well as a full time mother. JANICE JOHNSON is operating a day diner by the name of Johnson's Japanese Joint. CHARLES HALLYBURTON told us that he is the owner of the Greyhound Bus Lines. DONALD BENFIELD is very successful as the owner of the only legal Wine Plant in Burke County. REID WITHROW is living in Africa, with his wife and two children, as a missionary.

The day has ended and it is for friends to once more say "au revoir." It is growing dark as I, JANET KAYGA, leave for home with my husband Johnny Burnette, and I, LELIA WITHROW, now married, leave with my two-year old son, Jerry David.

Mr. Mull,

I guess I better consider this a pleasure to get to write in your annual. Some may not care much for you because you're kind of strict but I think you are very good and swell teacher. I wish you and your family all the happiness there is to offer.

Cocch,

I have really enjoyed the two years that you were my teacher and coach. I have learned a lot under you in the classroom and also on the field. I will never forget the times you plinished me or got after me and I think that they will do me good.

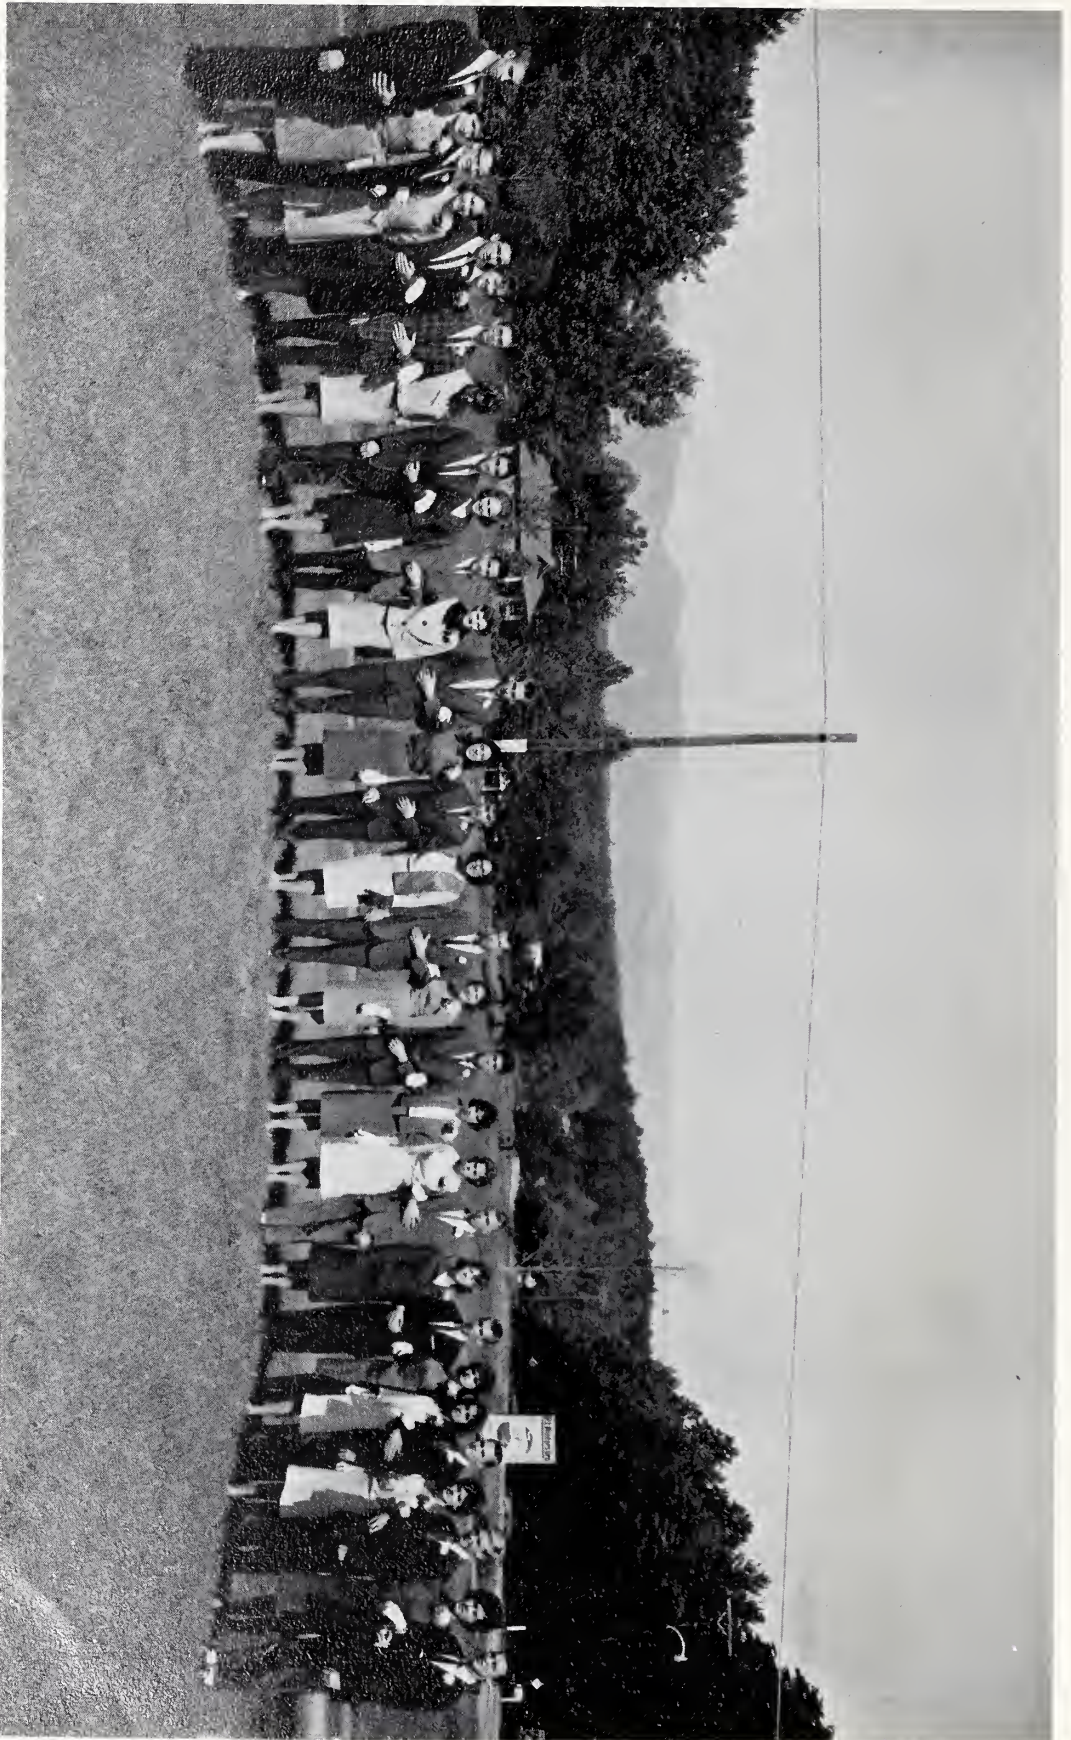

"HOW HIGH IS UP?" Just as high as Steve Carlisle, high point man for the Oak Hill Bulldogs this year.

(Remember the time before the last basketball game when you made me run 30 laps because I talked back at you, well I can see that you were right.) I wish you lots of luck in the future and may next years team be better than this year. ^{remember always}
